The George C. Young American Inn of Court

Nomination Form James G. Glazebrook Professionalism and Service Award

The George C. Young American Inn of Court is currently accepting nominations for the James G. Glazebrook Professionalism and Service Award. Judge Glazebrook was a thoughtful and outstanding jurist who was highly committed to the Inn's mission of mentoring young lawyers to help them understand the critical importance of practicing law with honor and integrity. The purpose of this award is to honor a current or former Inn member (including lawyers and judges) whose combination of service to the Inn and professionalism and integrity in practice display a course of excellence. Past award winners have included Judge John Antoon, II, Bruce Blackwell, Norberto Katz, Judge John Marshall Kest, Carolyn Salzmann, Judge Thomas B. Smith, Mark L. Horwitz, Gary Salzman, Judge Alice L. Blackwell, and Leon Blakely Cheek, III. The winner of this award will receive a plaque.

The winner of this award will be selected by the Board of Directors of the George C. Young American Inn of Court. The award will be presented during the June meeting of the Inn.

Nomination:

Person Making Nomination:

(a) Service to Inn:

(b) Professionalism and Integrity in Practice: Return Nominations to Cassandra Snapp by email at cassandra@horwitzcitrolaw.com. Deadline for Nominations: April 30th

The George C. Young American Inn of Court