

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP
IN THE
DORIS JONAS FREED AMERICAN INN OF COURT

The Doris Jonas Freed American Inn of Court is a multi-county family law Inn of the American Inns of Court. Among the objective of the Inn are the promotion of excellence, civility, professionalism, and ethics in the legal profession, and the fostering of greater appreciation of the adversary system of dispute resolution in American law.

Our experience in the Inn will improve and enhance the skills of law students, lawyers, masters, and judges, promote interaction and collegiality among all members, and help to transmit ethnlcal values from one professional generation to another.

The Doris Jonas Freed American Inn of Court meets seven times each year, generally on the second Tuesday of the month. Every member of the Inn is assigned to a pupilage team. Each team presents one educational program each year. Members are expected to help their team prepare the program and to attend every meeting. Dues range from $55 per year for law students to $330 per year for the most experienced lawyers, subject to occasional increase. Dues include meals at the meetings.

If you would like to apply for membership, please provide the information requested below and return this application to Jamie M. Jamison, Esquire at jjamison@ammlaw.com.
