

NY American Inn of Court: 2018 White Collar Team Bios

Glenn Colton is a partner in the White Collar and Government Investigations Practice at Dentons. Before returning to private practice, Glenn served almost 10 years as an Assistant United States Attorney in the Southern District of New York. In his spare time, Glenn co-hosts a weekly live sports radio show on SiriusXM.

Eugene Frenkel is an attorney and Excelsior Fellow with the New York State Department of Financial Services, protecting consumers and markets from fraud. He investigates potential fraud in banking, insurance, and other financial service companies and enforces state and federal laws. Outside of his day job, Eugene serves as Vice-chair of the American Inns of Court's New Lawyers Task Force, Chair of NYCLA's Resume Review, and Chair of NYSBA Criminal Justice Section's Bylaws and Internship Program Committees.

Milosz Gudzowski is a Trial Attorney at the Antitrust Division for the Department of Justice. Milosz has been at the Division for over seven years and has worked on both criminal and civil antitrust matters in a variety of industries, including airlines, telecommunications, automotive, and municipal contracting. Milosz is a graduate of Columbia Law School and lives on the Upper East Side with his wife and daughter.

Meredith Jones is General Counsel of New York City Economic Development Corporation. NYCEDC's mission is to create shared prosperity across the City's five boroughs by strengthening neighborhoods and growing good jobs. It is the City's official economic development corporation. Before joining NYCEDC, she was a transactional lawyer in Palo Alto, California. Prior thereto, she served as Chief of the Cable Services Bureau of the Federal Communication Commission in Washington, D.C., involved in multichannel video and telecom competition issues. Before joining the FCC, she was General Counsel to the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration in Washington, D.C., which includes the National Weather Service and is the nation's trustee for marine mammals and anadromous fish and the lead agency for oceanic and atmospheric issues. She was a member of the legal team of the Bechtel group of companies in San Francisco, California and was a partner in a San Francisco law firm. Jones began her legal career in New York City.

David Kerschner is an associate at Arnold & Porter in New York. David focuses on complex commercial litigation and has worked on teams that have tried cases to jury verdicts in multiple jurisdictions. His experiences include representing major life science companies in product liability actions, contractual disputes, and on antitrust claims relating to restraint of generic competition. Mr. Kerschner has experience handling all phases of litigation including trial strategy and preparation. He has also worked on internal investigations with large corporate clients. Mr. Kerschner earned his JD from New York University School of Law in 2012.

Allison Menkes is excited to be part of her fifth program with the White Collar team! She currently works as an Assistant General Counsel in the Compliance & Investigations group at Citi, where she focuses on anti-money laundering, internal investigations and government investigations. Prior to that, Allison was an associate at De Feis, O'Connell & Rose, P.C., specializing in white-collar criminal defense matters. She is a 2007 graduate of the Georgetown University Law Center.

Julie Singer is a Litigation Associate at Dentons. She graduated cum laude from University of Michigan Law School, where she served as an Articles Editor for the Michigan Journal of Gender & Law and volunteered for the Civil Rights Litigation Clearinghouse. Prior to law school, she connected community groups to arts experiences as the Service Relations & Program Coordinator at Art-Reach in Philadelphia. She has a B.A. in Philosophy from Haverford College. While in college, she co-founded a musical theater company and wrote an original musical about Haverford College.

Steven Tugander is a Trial Attorney in the New York Office of the United States Justice Department's Antitrust Division. Mr. Tugander is a 1986 graduate of the State University of New York at Stony Brook, and a 1989 graduate of Hofstra Law School where he was a member of the Law Review. He has been employed with the Antitrust Division since 1989, and has investigated and prosecuted numerous criminal antitrust cases affecting various industries in jurisdictions located throughout the Northeast. In January 2017, Mr. Tugander was appointed as the Antitrust Division's Criminal Special Projects Coordinator, reporting directly to the Deputy Assistant Attorney General and the Director of Criminal Enforcement. Mr. Tugander has served on the Executive Committee of the New York State Bar Association's Antitrust Law Section since January 2000. He served as Chair of the Section from January 2005 through January 2006, having previously served as Vice-Chair and Secretary of the Section. In addition, he also currently serves on the Section's Cartel and Criminal Enforcement sub-committee. Since 2004, Mr. Tugander has been a member of the New York American Inn of Court. During his tenure with the Inn, Mr. Tugander has organized a number of Continuing Legal Education programs related to various white collar criminal law topics. In December 2017, Mr. Tugander was honored as the first recipient of Antitrust Division's Ralph T. Giordano Award. The award recognizes excellence in antitrust cartel enforcement.