2020 – 2021 Meeting Topics & Working Titles
(All meetings will be virtual until further notice)

	September 16, 2020 – Inaugural Meeting for 2020-2021 Dean and Distinguished Professor of Law Erwin Chemerinsky of UC Berkeley Law presents his always insightful, in-depth and compelling review of the United States Supreme Court term, and his preview of significant cases to watch in the coming term.
PUPILLAGE GROUP 1	October 14, 2020 Dynamex: “Respondewhat?” Pupillage Group One will explore the recent opinion Dynamex Operations West, Inc. v. Superior Court (2018) 4 Cal.5th 903, Assembly Bill 5, and Proposition 22, which have potential consequences reaching far beyond wage and hour disputes.
PUPILLAGE GROUP 2	November 11, 2020 The Courts and Litigation during the COVID era. Pupillage Group Two will discuss and exchange ideas on how the courts and attorneys have adjusted and continue to adjust with operations during the pandemic, and how things may remain changed into the future.
ANNUAL INGRAM SYMPOSIUM	January 13, 2021 – Santa Clara University (virtual) Inn members and guests are invited to attend the Annual Ingram Symposium at Santa Clara University. This event honors the legacy of Judge William A. Ingram, one of the founders of this chapter of the American Inns of Court. Judge Ingram was a role model for civility, collegiality, professionalism, and ethics.
PUPILLAGE GROUP 3	February 10, 2021 The Links Between COVID-19, Shelter-in-Place, Trauma, and the Courts: the impact on you, your work, and litigants. Pupillage Group Three will present a program including mental health professionals to develop a trauma-informed perspective on how COVID-19 has impacted court processes, litigants and attorneys. The program will focus on how to recognize and cope with COVID-19 and resulting job stresses, and provide tips for building resilience during the pandemic.
PUPILLAGE GROUP 4	March 10, 2021 The Challenging Attorney/Client/Litigant Pupillage Group Four will present a program on maintaining professionalism in interactions with difficult people, and effective strategies for managing situations and stress in and with persons with personality disorders, PTSD, or other behavioral and emotional triggers.
