Marla Moss is a dedicated neutral focusing on employment matters for over a decade. She has over 35 years of experience in complex commercial litigation, business disputes and workplace matters on both sides of the aisle. She was trained by the Harvard Law School Program on Negotiation. Her background includes serving as General Counsel for eight years for a group of closely held chemical companies in New Jersey. She is a past Chair of the Dispute Resolution Section of the New Jersey State Bar Association and past Chair of the Employment Mediation Section of the New Jersey Professional Mediators Association. Ms. Moss was appointed to a one year term by Justice Rabner in 2016 to serve on the New Jersey Supreme Court CDR Committee which empowers the court mediation program. She currently serves on the Executive Board of the Labor and Employment Section of the NJSBA.

Ms. Moss uses her knowledge and experience to empower counsel as a neutral facilitator to exchange information, evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of their cases and create the best possible resolution for their clients under the unique circumstances presented. As a professional mediator she uses her conflict resolution skills and humor to diffuse emotions and create an atmosphere that allows for fair and balanced negotiations towards settlement.

Ms. Moss also serves as a neutral investigator for workplace discrimination claims.
