

FFLAIOC PUPILAGE GROUP II PROGRAM

Title: Litigation Practice during COVID-19 and Technology Tips
Presentation Date: October 15, 2020
Co-Leaders: Christina Wilford and Catheline Georges

Description Paragraph: As litigators our practice is ever evolving. The year of 2020 has dealt every attorney with a new challenge in order to effectively continue to advocate for our clients. Today we discuss (1) how we leverage technology to continue to pursue client litigation goals and demonstrate practice proficiency, (2) how local rules and procedures have changed, (3) and how we can evolve together to move forward as a legal community both stronger and more efficient.

Introduction from President	Ashley Meyers
------------------------------------	---------------

Invocation	David Trotti
-------------------	--------------

Presentation Topics

1	Know your Judge: Review of Judicial Preference for Remote Proceedings Handout. Review of Judicial Pet Peeves and Tips for Remote Practice Success	Jasmin Barquinero Julia Mclaughlin
2	Preparing Clients as Witnesses for Zoom Hearings and Participants in Zoom Mediations Poll: Do you prepare your client/witness on Zoom or in person? Answer Choices: Via Zoom or In Person Do you bring your client/witness into the office for the Zoom hearing and/or mediations? Answer Choices: Via Zoom or In Office	Diana Farhat Elizabeth Ondriezek

	Do you wear masks on Zoom if you bring your client/witness into your office? Answer Choices: Always, Sometimes, or Never Have you tried using two cameras in your office for a Zoom hearing? Answer Choices: Yes or No Do you tell your client/witness to dress properly for hearings and not be in bed? Answer Choices: Yes or No Do you have concerns for Zoom mediations that confidentiality may be violated by conferring with others during mediation? Answer Choices: Yes or No, I trust my client Do you have concerns if the opposing party is in the same room with their attorney that they may be conferring regarding answers to questions? Answer Choices: Yes or No
	Judge’s Perspective During Remote Proceedings	Judge Gary Flower Hearing Officer Leatrice Walton
4	Attorney’s Perspective “Bridging the Gap” from in Person Practice to Remote Practice	Catheline Georges
5	Exhibits & Remote Proceedings	Stacey Devall

Mentorship Moment	Fred Moberg
Toast	Christina Wilford