

I'ANSON-HOFFMAN INN OF COURT NEWSLETTER

December 2017

VOL. 29, NO. 2

NEXT MEETING

Wednesday, January 10, 2018

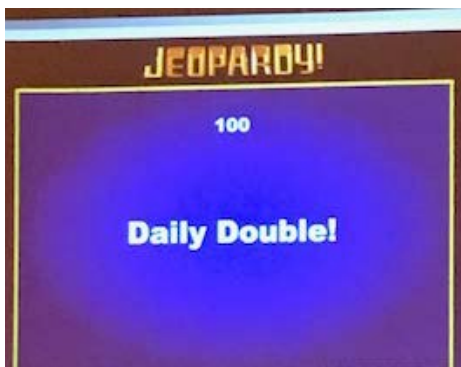

5:30 - Cocktails

6:30 – Dinner and Program

Hampton Yacht & Country Club

Presentation by Pupilage Group IV

NOVEMBER MEETING RECAP

On November 15, 2017, the Norfolk Yacht & Country Club played host to Pupilage Group II's tremendous Jeopardy! themed program.

With a tambourine, whoopee cushion, gavel, and more used to “buzz in,” the game pitted the remaining pupilage groups and the Executive Committee against one another in a game that tested players’ knowledge of Inn history, the rules of evidence, major Supreme Court decisions, and more. The “William & Mary bonuses” hidden throughout the game board ensured that our student members could be fully involved.

In the end, Pupilage Group I emerged victorious, and all present were eligible for one hour of live Virginia CLE credit.

Thank you for your efforts, Pupilage Group II!

TOASTING TORCH

In keeping with the spirit of the season, at our last meeting James Johnsen encouraged us all to raise our glasses and toast to the experienced attorneys and other mentors who have taken a chance and supported us in our lives. He then passed the toasting torch to Shevarma Pemberton for our January 10 gathering.

REMINDERS

- Treasurer Ryan Snow stands ready to collect your annual dues. Please settle your balance as soon as possible.
- Please RSVP promptly for every Inn meeting to Secretary Mary Jane Hall.

FOOD DRIVE RECAP

Thank you to the Outreach Committee for organizing our first service project of the new Inn year – a food drive benefitting the Food Bank of Southeastern Virginia and the Eastern Shore. Through our members’ in-kind and financial generosity, we collected enough to provide 1,176 meals to families in need.

Until our next issue,

Katie Dougherty, Newsletter Editor