

Terri Roth Reicher JD, LL.M.
terrireicher@gmail.com

Terri Roth Reicher is an Attorney Mediator / Arbitrator and maintains an active Alternate Dispute Resolution (ADR) private practice in Northern New Jersey. She was the 2017 recipient of the Richard Jeydel Award for Excellence in ADR and Service to the Dispute Resolution Community. Terri Reicher is a charter member of the elite National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals (NADN). She was appointed by the NJ Supreme Court to serve as a Fee Arbitrator and currently serves on the Office of Attorney Ethics District IX Ethics Committee. She serves on the panel of statewide mediators handling a wide range of commercial disputes with an expertise in healthcare, real estate and employment matters. She served as a United States Equal Opportunity Commission mediator. In addition, Ms. Reicher has served on the Multidisciplinary Bioethics Committee for the Atlantic Health System advising the hospital on end of life matters. She writes and speaks frequently on this topic.

Ms. Reicher has taught Dispute Resolution Processes at Seton Hall University School of Law and Health Law at Thomas Jefferson University School of Medicine. She is a frequent trainer and faculty member for the NJ Association of Professional Mediators (NJAPM) and NJ Institute for Continuing Legal Education (ICLE).

Ms. Reicher is past President of the Justice Marie L. Garibaldi ADR American Inn of Court. During her leadership, she is credited with first obtaining platinum status for this Inn. She continues to serve on its Executive Board and its Programming Committee. She had served as an officer in the New Jersey State Bar Association, Dispute Resolution Section and is a member of the American Bar Association Dispute Resolution Section, WIDR (Women in Dispute Resolution).

She received her B.S., magna cum laude, from the Wharton School of Business, University of Pennsylvania, her J.D. from Vanderbilt University School of Law, and her LL.M. in Health and Hospital Law from Seton Hall University School of Law. Ms. Reicher has served as Councilwoman in NJ for more than a decade.