

James R. Coben is a professor at Mitchell Hamline School of Law and a senior fellow in the law school's internationally acclaimed Dispute Resolution Institute (DRI), which he directed from 2000-2009. He teaches civil procedure and advocacy, along with a wide variety of ADR courses. He is a co-author of the Thomson Reuters trial practice series treatise MEDIATION: LAW, POLICY & PRACTICE (2022-2023), a co-editor of the four-volume RETHINKING NEGOTIATION TEACHING SERIES (DRI Press 2009-2013), and a former editorial board member of the American Bar Association's DISPUTE RESOLUTION MAGAZINE, for which he co-writes a Research Insights featured column. As a consultant and trainer, he works with state and local government boards and agencies to improve the quality of public deliberation and decision-making. As a facilitator, he plans and conducts strategic planning and helps private and public organizations to build and maintain a culture of collaboration.
