

INN OF COURT

Generative Artificial Intelligence and the Practice of Law November 1, 2023 Materials

John Frank Weaver: Inns of Court: Generative Artificial Intelligence and the Practice of Law

Is Disclosure and Certification of the use of generative AI really necessary? Grossman, Grimm & Brown from Judicare, Vol. 107, #2

AI response to: "Please tell me about promissory estoppel."

AI Tools For Lawyers: A Practical Guide, Schwarcz & Choi, Draft Marach 30, 2023

Mata v. Avianca, Inc., US District Court for the Southern District of New York

Walters v. OpenAI, LLC, Superior Court of Gwinnett County, State of Georgia

Standing Order Governing Civil Cases, US District Court S.D. Ohio

Belenzon v. Paws Up Ranch, LLC, order re use of AI

General Order 2023-03. In re: Pleadings Using Generative Artificial Intelligence. US Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas.

NH Rules of Professional Conduct 1.1 Competence, 1.3 Diligence, 1.6 Confidentiality of Information, 2.1 Advisor, 3.3 Candor Toward Tribunal, 5.1 Responsibilities of Partners, Managers, and Supervisory Lawyers, 5.3 Responsibilities Regarding Nonlawyer Assistance, 5.5 Unauthorized Practice of Law; Multijurisdictional Practice of Law.

Add for AI-powered legal virtual assistant for research, etc.

Deepfakes and Generative AI in Trial

Prominent Authors File Claims Against ChatGPT

Could AI Systems Replace Layers? Gregory Sirico

State Bar Associations Escalate Work on Ethical Issues Raised by Artificial Intelligence, Esquire Deposition Solutions LLC

Office Aide by Danielle Braff, ABA Journal, Oct.-Nov. 2023