Please ___ do / ___ do not share my contact information on a digital membership list.

Members—once on-boarded by the Inn—should complete their profile adding practice information to the American Inn of Court website (<https://home.innsocourt.org/>). Note: your e-mail will be your username; the password can be set initially by using the “forgot password” option.

Each member is placed in a “pupilage group” that presents a CLE. If possible, please do not put me in one of these pupilage groups (identify month(s)): _____ or _____.

___ I am an associate and am interested in (if possible) being paired with a mentor within the Inn.

Membership Level and Options for Fee Payment:

In Fall 2024, I will have been in practice for _____ years; and, thus, will be a(an) _____.

___ I will pay my dues online using via credit card on the AIC website (Sign In; Navigate to “Pay My Invoices.”)
 ___ I prefer to pay via check and will remit my payment and the payment stub included below. (But will still e-mail this completed form to Sonia Montalbano (sonia@mckeansmithlaw.com)).
 ___ I will contact Treasurer Kendra Matthews (kendra@boisematthews.com) to discuss options/concerns about fees.

(Fees refunded if admission not granted. The Inn reserves discretion on admission and to waive membership fees.)

The Gus J. Solomon Inn is an equal opportunity non-profit membership organization.
