

Gary Doernhoefer

Gary Doernhoefer graduated from the University of Chicago School of Law and has 30 years of experience in private practice, as an in-house attorney, general counsel and entrepreneur in two successful technology startup companies. His legal experience convinced him of the benefits of ADR and inspired him to apply his skills to the development of technology for dispute resolution practitioners. He is the founder of ADR Notable - a case and practice management software designed specifically for ADR practitioners, Co-Chair of the Technology Committee of the ABA Dispute Resolution Section which was recently recognized for innovation by the Section, and a frequent speaker on ADR technology.
