About Tom Gerardi: Once celebrated as a legal titan and a co-founder of L.A. based Girardi & Keese, Girardi's shocking downfall exposed a web of deceit, embezzlement, and betrayal of his own clients. As a key figure on "The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills," Girardi's opulent lifestyle captured public attention, but behind the glamour lay a story of legal and ethical collapse that has forever changed the legal profession.

Girardi, 85, faces up to 80 years in prison after being convicted on August 27, 2024 of four counts of wire fraud. Prosecutors charged Girardi with stealing at least $15 million from four clients over a period of two decades.
