Felicia Farber is an independent arbitrator, mediator, workplace investigator, educator, and attorney based in NY/NJ with over 30 years of experience as a litigator and neutral in commercial, civil & family disputes. For the past 20+ years her practice has been primarily focused on providing dispute resolution services in the following areas: employment, sexual harassment, disability, construction, complex business/commercial, torts, contracts, homeowners association, environmental insurance, social media, defamation, school, civil sex abuse, divorce, foreclosure, products liability, will contests, and medical malpractice. As of Summer 2024 she is the Director & Clinical Professor of Rutgers Law School – Newark’s inaugural Mediation Clinic.

Ms. Farber serves as an Arbitrator and Mediator for the AAA, FINRA, CPR, New Jersey State Courts, and US District Courts for the Eastern District of New York and the District of New Jersey. She has extensive experience mediating for the US Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (Newark), the New Jersey Office of Dispute Settlement (NJODS), and NJ Division of Health Services Early Intervention System, as well as over 10 years as a Matrimonial Early Settlement Panelist and a Military Ombudsman for the Employer Support of the Guard & Reserve. She has conducted over 3000 mediations, many involving multimillion dollar damage claims.

Ms. Farber was awarded the 2022 Lewis Pepperman Distinguished Service Award and 2019 James B. Bosky ADR Practitioner of the Year Award by the New Jersey State Bar Association (NJSBA) and serves on the NJ Supreme Court Committee on Complementary Dispute Resolution & Arbitration Advisory Committee, the Advisory Committee on Mediator Standards, and the Eastern District of NY ADR Advisory Council. She also serves on the NJSBA Executive Committee of the Labor & Employment Section and is Vice President of the Justice Marie L. Garibaldi American Inn of Court for ADR, and NJ Regional Chair for ABA Women In Dispute Resolution. In addition, she is past Chair of the NJSBA Dispute Resolution Section, past Trustee of the Women in the Profession Section, a member of the ADR and Construction Law Sections of the Bergen County Bar Association and former Vice President of NJAPM.

As a frequent writer and speaker, she regularly conducts presentations and trainings for state and county bar associations, Inns of Courts, law schools, universities, the AAA, and professional organizations. She has developed and taught Advanced Civil Mediation courses for NJODS, and Negotiation & Conflict Resolution and Mock Trial classes at William Paterson University. She is IMI Certified, a member of the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals, and, in her spare time, enjoys writing fiction novels.
