

2013-2014 Program Schedule
“And Now Back to Reality IP”

September 12, 2013 – at Woodcock Washburn
Organizational Meeting
October 17, 2013 – at Fox Rothschild
Topic: IP – For who, for what? The program will look at what business roles IP can play, identifying what management expects from its IP program and how strategies can be implemented to achieve the desired expectations.
November 7, 2013 – at Woodcock Washburn
Topic: Is the ITC for Me? The program will explore what you and your client need to know before an initiating a complaint at the ITC or if your client is named in a complaint.
January 7, 2014 – at Drinker Biddle & Reath
Topic: A Trademark Abroad The program explores issues associated with global brands and national brands on the Internet, including filing strategies (national and international registrations, Community Trade Mark), potential country specific problems (language, conflicting marks), and domain name issues.
March 27, 2014 – at the U.S. Courthouse (sponsored by Ratner Prestia)
Topic: Appellate Oral Argument – Nautilus v. Biosig Instruments Judges Linn, Schiller, and Goldberg will hear oral argument regarding whether “insolubly ambiguous” is the correct standard for indefiniteness. This issue is presently pending before the U.S. Supreme Court in Nautilus v. Biosig Instruments .
April 24, 2014 – at Volpe Koenig
Topic: Wicked – A Musical Review of Unethical Patent Practice Our third annual theatrical program will be based on the musicals Wicked and The Wizard of Oz , and also on 37 C.F.R. § 10.20 et seq. (USPTO Code of Professional Responsibility) and 37 C.F.R. § 11.101 et seq. (USPTO Rules of Professional Conduct).
May 6, 2014 – at Duane Morris
Topic: An APJ on PGP under the AIA An Administrative Patent Judge will participate in a program which explores the newly instituted review procedures and insights from some early proceedings.
May 13, 2014 – at Lucky Strike
Social Meeting and Scholarship Presentation