FALL SOCIAL A BIG HIT

The I'Anson-Hoffman Inn of Court kicked off its new year with a fall social on September 25, 2010. This year the social was held at the beautiful home of Louis and Deborah Waters on the banks of the Chuckatuck Creek in Suffolk. The weather was fantastic and so was the company. Many thanks to our hosts!

TOASTING TORCH

Jim Chapman passed the toasting torch to Christian Connell at the fall social, so the Inn will eagerly await Christian's toast at the next meeting. For those who are not familiar with the toast, it has become a customary introduction to our meetings following the similar tradition of the Inns in London.

PUPILAGE GROUP V

Pupilage Group V will provide the entertainment (or educational program) at the November meeting at the Norfolk Yacht & Country Club. If you are in Pupilage Group V, find your colleagues and start planning your program! I am one of those colleagues, so if all else fails, find me.

Until next issue . . .
