JANUARY MEETING RECAP

Pupilage Group II presented the program at the January meeting at the Hampton Yacht Club. The other Pupilage Groups – with the Executive Committee participating as Group II – competed in a heated round of Jeopardy. Categories ranged from Evidence Potpourri and Hearsay to Character Evidence and Ethics. Somehow, someway, Pupilage Group IV won the day. Many thanks to Pupilage Group II for its entertaining and interactive program!

TOASTING TORCH

Judge Roe offered a toast at the January meeting to setting goals, with inspiration from The Language of Letting Go. The toasting torch passes to Romeo Lumaban for the February meeting.

PUPILAGE GROUP IV

Pupilage Group IV will present the February program at the Norfolk Yacht & Country Club. Rumor has it that Family Feud may have influenced the creative team.

MENTORING PROGRAM

The mentoring program remains in full swing under the guidance of Judge Mathews. If you have not contacted your counterpart, please do so soon. See the email to members from October 24, 2011 for information and names (c/o drjohnson@courts.state.va.us in your inbox).
