

AMERICAN INNS of COURT

F'ANSON-HOFFMAN INN OF COURT NEWSLETTER

April 2012

VOL. 24, NO. 5

SPECIAL EDITION

NEXT MEETING

Joint Meeting with the
James Kent Inn of Court

Wednesday, April 11, 2012

5:30 - Cocktails
6:30 - Dinner
7:30 - Program

Norfolk Yacht & Country Club
7001 Hampton Boulevard
Norfolk, Virginia

PRESENTATION BY DR. TERRY PRICE

This special edition of the newsletter is dedicated to the upcoming presentation by Dr. Terry Price at our joint meeting with the James Kent Inn of Court. A philosopher with grounding in psychology, Dr. Price specializes in leadership ethics and moral psychology. He is a Professor of Leadership Studies and Philosophy, Politics, Economics and Law at the University of Richmond. He is also Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

Dr. Price will speak about leadership ethics. His newest book, Leadership Ethics: An Introduction, focuses on everyday leadership and provides a moral analysis of the reasons leaders give for breaking the rules. His resume also includes Understanding Ethical Failures in Leadership, from Cambridge University Press, and a number of other works.

Dr. Price comes highly recommended and we look forward to welcoming him at the joint meeting.

FEBRUARY MEETING

Pupilage Group IV presented an excellent program at the February meeting, centered on the classic game show Family Feud.

TOASTING TORCH

Romeo Lumaban offered the toast at the February meeting and passed the torch to Chamie Riley for the joint meeting.

MENTORING PROGRAM

The mentoring program proved a success again under the guidance of Judge Mathews. Many thanks to Judge Mathews for his efforts!

Until next issue . . .

Ryan Snow
Newsletter Editor