HIGHLIGHTS FROM JANUARY

The newsletter is back in full effect! The story of its brief disappearance will remain one of the many secrets of our Inn, at least until I think of something to say. Pupilage Group III presented an excellent summary at our January meeting of three ethics cases argued to our Virginia Supreme Court. Headed by Judge Doyle and organized by Polly Chong, the program featured Paul Fletcher from Virginia Lawyers Weekly and Jim McCauley of the State Bar. The speakers were excellent and the discussion was lively.

TOASTING TORCH

Brian Casey offered a toast to collegiality at the January meeting and passed the torch to Dave Littel. Dave is highly regarded at Taylor & Walker as a great orator and toaster, so be ready for something special.

MENTORING PROGRAM

If you are a mentor or mentee and have not contacted your counterpart, please do so soon.

FEBRUARY MEETING

Pupilage Group V will present the program at the February meeting.

LONDON TRIP

Say something about the London trip.

Until next issue . . .
